Harry Leon Wilson, author of "Ruggles of Red Gap," "Bunker Bean," etc., says:
"I take a dozen monthly magazines—rather desperately, because I live in the country—the first dozen you would name, some cheap, some costly, and all, with one new and impudent exception, quite uniformly bad in their fiction . . ."
And what is "the new and impudent exception"? Mr. Wilson says it is The New Smart Set. And when it comes to fiction, Mr. Wilson knows!
